Dear:

Since its opening in 2001, the Kenan Chapel has become an important part of Landfall as well as the larger Wilmington community. Hundreds of weddings, baptisms, memorial services, and other ceremonies have been hosted at the Chapel by Landfall residents and other local families.

The Chapel has sponsored 24 seasons of Sunday afternoon concerts, presented by talented young musicians, the majority are North Carolina residents or students at schools and universities within the state. The concerts are free and open to the public.

Our interfaith Chapel is a charitable 501 (c) (3) trust organization, so all donations are tax-deductible. In addition to supporting the free concerts, donations and proceeds from the festival contribute to Chapel maintenance and are shared with the Great Oaks Club, providing support for landscape and wildlife environment projects.

Our 24th annual major fund-raising event on October 10th is the Kenan Chapel Fall Festival, which is one of the few community-wide events in Landfall that attracts residents of all ages. We are expanding its activities again this year to attract even more attendees and continuing with the Halloween theme with costumes and events. In years past, attendance exceeded one thousand residents. All Festival sponsors and silent auction donors receive recognition both at the event and in Landfall publications.

We ask that you join the area businesses and professionals who have helped make this event a success with their generous donations. Enclosures provide detailed information on sponsorships and silent auction donations.

For further information, please contact Fall Festival Chair Mike Kane at (910) 515-0412 Kanex5@aol.com. A Chapel board member will be in touch to help arrange sponsorships and silent auction contributions.

Sincerely,

Mike Kane
